Hey Ginny et al,

I don't have time to do any real data mining today or tomorrow. I can try on Monday. If you wish to try yourself, then I am attaching some files and walked thru one for an example.

If you go to Jonathan's report for example, and go the the R6_NM sheet, and look at Column S, it will tell you which folder on FOIA online the information came from. The reports are available on the FOIA website:

Jonathan,

Thank you! From reading through the notes, there seem to be some challenges with interpreting these counts:
